

10.1 Sharing Designs Publicly

In this section, we will explore how to share your learning design with public users.

1. Clicking the Share Button

There are two places where the Share button can be found. The first is on the My Library page.

Description

Designing for the Wise is an interactive course where you'll discover how to create innovative, user-centered solutions for the elderly. Learn to empathize with the unique challenges the elderly face, apply design thinking processes, and develop practical prototypes that make a real difference. Join us to blend creativity and care as you design a better world for the wise!
